

WOMAN LIFE FREEDOM: PHILOSOPHIES, HISTORIES, POSSIBILITIES

This symposium will explore the philosophical, historical and contemporary dimensions and possibilities of the women's human rights struggle in the Middle East, and its relationship with authoritarianism and decolonization.

PANELISTS

1-2:45PM Introduction by Sayeh Meisami, Symposium Chair
Shahrazad Mojab, University of Toronto
Ozlem Goner, City University of New York

3-4:30PM Nadjé Al-Ali, Brown University
Parvaneh Hosseini, University of Arizona
Elham Gheytauchi, Santa Monica College

4:45-5:45 PM Nilofar Sakhi, George Washington University
Margret Grebowicz, *University of Silesia, Poland/
Visiting Professor Hampshire College*
Maria Zaki, University of Dayton

---

DAY
MARCH 3

TIME
1-6 PM

---

PLACE

HYBRID: HUMAN RIGHTS
CENTER & ZOOM

---

Sponsors: UD Department of Philosophy, International Studies Program, and Human Rights Center